November E-Newsletter

November has been a busy month here locally and I wanted to update you on some of the things happening in our community and our state.

This November is Small Business Month and I want to give a big shout-out to all of our amazing local small businesses. Our local economy is built off the back of hardworking small businesses owners who help make our local area the best place to live.

This month I have also had the privilege of visiting so many of our amazing local community groups, small businesses and local heroes including;

- Hosting our local RSL Sub-Branched in NSW Parliament
- Visiting SDN Riverwood for Early Learning Matters Week
- Hosting the 2022 United Nations Day Gala Dinner
- Celebrating Grandparents Day at Lugarno Public School
- Celebrating Olympia Sleiman's 100th Birthday
- Meeting with Peakhurst locals about traffic and parking issues
- Helping serve meals to those in-need at Riverwood Community Centre
- Hosting the 2022 St George Community Awards
- Visiting RAIN in Penshurst
- Hosting a community meeting in Mortdale Heights
- Meeting our local Year 12 High School Leaders in Parliament
- Attending Penshurst RSL's Remembrance Day Service
- Visiting the Penshurst Mosque to chat with some of our local multicultural leaders

Its been a great month so far!

2022 St George Community Awards Ceremony

It was my pleasure to host the annual St George Community Awards at Club Central this month!

A big congratulations to all the wonderful award recipients who were recognised on the night!
